Cao Hữu Phúc

Backend Engineer building scalable systems & AI-powered workflows | Streaming | SaaS | AWS | Docker
Da Nang City, Vietnam

Summary

Backend / Fullstack Engineer with a strong focus on scalable systems, streaming infrastructure, and subscription platforms. Experienced in building and optimizing real-world systems including HLS/LL-HLS streaming pipelines, custom video players with analytics tracking, and cross-platform subscription management (Stripe, Google Play, Apple Store). Deeply interested in system design, database optimization, and cloud-native architectures (AWS, Docker). Leveraging AI to accelerate development, improve code quality, and rethink how modern engineering teams build products. Open to remote opportunities, freelance projects, and building global SaaS products.
